WEEKLY

Sermon: Standing Fast on a Spinning World
 Scripture: John 17:6-19

Inside this issue:	1	I remember one of the lessons that was drummed into my head as a child - Be careful who you hang around with . The caution was extended in many different ways, but you get the point. It has been a source of contention for as long as there have been Christians. Can we truly live the faith if we mingle with the "world"?
Sexton's Comments	2
Weekly Calendar	3
June Extra Helpings	4	But this begs another question: When did the world get so bad? I mean, what's wrong with the "world"? Didn't God create it and pronounce it "GOOD" !
Announcements	5
Youth Fund Raiser	6	In the text we hear today the world plays a key part in the prayer of Jesus. He tells us he is not praying for the "world", but for those who have been given to him. In this case, he is praying for his disciples. And it's not that the world is bad; it may be more that the world is cruel , something Jesus will experience first hand. That's the world that needs to be altered, changed, redeemed.

Special points of interest:

- Home Group tonight at the Demers, 6:45pm call 523-3096 for directions.

How we dreaded to put our child on that school bus the first day of kindergarten! Jan cried, and I worried. What would become of our little Joshua? He was so shy, and (at least in our eyes), so vulnerable! Is that what Jesus saw when he looked at his disciples? They do not belong to the world, he says of them. But they have to navigate it! And so do you.

How do you stand fast on something that is constantly spinning, and so often taking cruel and unjust turns? How do you fight that? Should we fight it? Let's talk about that . . . and consider what Jesus has to say . . .

SEXTON'S COMMENTS

Again we were rewarded in the flowering of tulips and daffodils over the Mother's Day weekend. Soon there will be coleus growing around the monument, as well as day lilies on the hillside by the play yard. We were sorry to see that the heather planted by the floodlights didn't make it over the winter; but they were replaced with salvia. Our traditional red geraniums will be planted early in June. Hopefully by that time we won't have any frost.

The work goes on, and the cleaning and minor repairs continue on a daily basis, as well as weekly mowing of the lawns and weed-whacking the hillside along Parkside and below the play area. We have been inundated with many dandelions all along the back side of the church property. However, we were able to put down fertilizer with weed control on the front lawns. Probably by next year, the dandelions will be back due to seeds blowing in. It's all part of God's plan to keep us busy.

 Bring salads and finger foods, the desserts and beverages will be provided. Sign-up sheet on coffee table.

We now have a strong youth and adult ministry. What a blessing! It is our desire to now concentrate our efforts toward the adults to get us all mobilized for the cause of Christ.

Why? Because we, the adults, have a great reservoir of experience, expertise and gifts to offer to God. How can we sit still and let the youth do it all? It is time for us to get up and join hands! Please attend the luncheon and we will support one another, talk about issues, pray for each other and enjoy the fellowship.
